

Natural Disasters

Nature is both the Mother and the Destructor. No one knows if tomorrow will bring a natural calamity, and claim the lives and habitat of people. Indian has seen some of the worse natural disasters, and have always been capable of helping its victims to re-establish their life and run it. Relfo is yet another name in addition, to help the victims of natural disasters with necessary funds and facilities. We help people who are facing problems because of Flood, Drought, Earthquake, Rainwater, Forest fire, Volcanic Eruptions, Sinkholes, Blizzards, Hailstorms, Thunderstorm, Cyclone etc. Our foundation helps people to re-habituate their lives after the natural calamity's strike, and support them to construct homes, prevail food and other living requirements. We try to reach out every possible people to get them the needed help.
